TEACHTAIREACHT AN CHÁTHHAOIRLIGH

Ar son Choiste Átha Cliath ba mhaithe liom faite mhor le chur roimh gach duine go dti craobh chluiche ceannais tomarna Bhaoile Átha Cliath, tá mé cinnte go bhfuil na foíme is fearr sa chontae ag imirt inntiu. Tá mé sasta go mbeidh cluiche an mhaithe againn, freisin.

I would like to welcome all our many supporters to this very special Dublin GAA Senior Hurling Championship Final.

The final this year is between two Clubs, Craobh Chiaráin and Cuala who are endeavouring to win their second championship. Like the football, the Hurling Final is North City v South City and in recent years the growth of the G.A.A. in the South has brought championships to that part of the city.

Both teams have in their number many of the Dublin senior hurling panel. This year Dublin again reached the Leinster Hurling Final for the 2nd year in succession. We did not win but the team demonstrated a spirit, commitment and quality of hurling that augurs well and gives optimism for the future. The manner in which Kilkenny subsequently acquitted themselves is a tribute to Dublin.

Craobh Chiaráin last won the championship in 1971, could this be their year? They do so much for the development of hurling in the local area among the schools and at underage level. Victory for them is important. They field a strong team ably led by the very experienced Eamonn Rheinisch, supported by Paul Gilton in goal, Derek Finn, Marty Ryan and Kieran Hetheron. These are well known names but some new faces have begun to shine like Anto McCord and Harry Hayes in attack who have helped to give new impetus to Craobh Chiaráin.

Ciarans had some difficult games on the way to the final. They defeated St. Vincents, Faughs and in the semi-final, Crumlin after a replay. To have reached the final in this section is a significant achievement.

Cuala on the other hand are endowed with the Holden family. Their Dublin players give them a very strong defence which will be hard to breach and has been their strong point during the championship led by Damien Byrne in goal and ably supported in the full back line by Michael Holden, John Treacy and Colm Ó Giolláin. That very special hurler Vinnie Holden leads the team at centre half back, and with Mick O'Shea at mid-field, Marty Dempsey and Colm O'Driscoll it makes up a formidable team. The Cuala ace so far seems to be that they can introduce super subs like Mossy O'Callaghan and P.J. Holden to lift the game when necessary.

To reach the final they had to defeat Good Counsel, the reigning champions O'Tooles after a replay and extra time, and finally Kilmacud Crokes in the semi-final.

Today’s final will be a contrast in styles. Chiaráin with their fast flowing open hurling and Cuala with no nonsense first time striking. This contrast makes in my opinion for a great exciting final representative of Dublin hurling at its best. I am looking forward to a great game and I wish both teams every success.

Today’s game is preceded by the Senior Football challenge for the Kidney Foundation between Dublin and Donegal. It promises to be a good game and it is an ideal contest with which to open the Championship Day.

A special word of thanks to our County Secretary Mr. Jim King, his office staff, the groundsman, Noel Brady, the dressing-room staff, stewards and gatemen for their efforts in organising/controlling the game and dressing the pitch.

Tá stiúráid agam go mbairfíөd gach duine taitheann as na cluichti ar an lá inntiu.

Con Clarke!

You are all very welcome to the challenge match between Dublin and Donegal. Thank you for your support in our efforts to raise funds towards research into kidney disease and renal transplantation.

Our thanks are due to the County Boards of Dublin and Donegal for so readily agreeing to take part in the match and for their excellent cooperation at every stage of the pre-match arrangements. We very much appreciate the use of Dublin’s home ground Parnell Park.

We are very grateful for all those who are helping to make this event a success — our sponsors, our supporters, the referee and linesmen, and most of all the players. We look forward to a great afternoon of football and hope that you all enjoy yourselves.

Dear Supporters

The Transplant Foundation was established to help the Renal Transplant Department at Beaumont Hospital. It provides much needed funds to support both education and research which are needed to maintain the Transplant unit at Beaumont’s position amongst the best in Europe. On behalf of the Foundation I would like to thank both teams and their management for their generosity in supporting this cause. I would also like to thank the Dublin Co. Board for so kindly providing Parnell Park for the game. Finally I would like to thank you all for turning up today and making the event a success.

INTERESTING CONTEST IN PROSPECT

The meeting of Dublin and Donegal today brings together two teams who were confidently expected to lift their respective provincial titles this summer only to see their conquerors go on to contest the All-Ireland final.

The epic four match series between Dublin and Meath in the Leinster First round last June and July will never be forgotten. It held the interest of a nation, as Dublin who had just won the Royal Liver League title tried to wrest way the Leinster title from their arch rivals in green. For drama the fourth game on July 6th was hard to beat. Dublin dominated to such an extent that they led by 12 points to six after 50 minutes and despite the fact that Keith Barr missed a penalty with nine minutes to go, they were still three points in front entering the last minute. But not for the first time Meath fought back and with a Kevin Foley goal and a David Beggy point they amazingly squeezed through by the minimum margin — 2-10 to 0-15.

Donegal who were the reigning Ulster champions easily won through to the provincial final to face Down and were warm favourites to retain their title. However they were rocked by an early Mickey Linden goal and after that they were always struggling. At half-time they trailed by 1-9 to 0-5 and despite reducing the gap to four points with fifteen minutes left, there was to be no dramatic comeback. Down pulled away again for an emphatic eight points victory — 1-15 to 0-10. There was general surprise around the country about this result but few if anybody knew at the time how good Down were.

That defeat by Meath in the Leinster First round was only the second competitive loss suffered by Dublin since Paddy Cullen took over. The first was against Donegal in his very first match in charge on October 7th 1990. The game was played in Ballybofey and it saw the home side dominate the first half to lead by 0-8 to 0-2. Goals by Manus Boyle and Joyce McMullan made sure that lead was easily defended in the second half, and Dublin could never get any closer than the five points that ended up separating the sides at the finish — losing on a 2-11 to 1-9 scoreline.

Today both teams take the chance to experiment and with the League coming up it will be a useful exercise. Dublin will be want to avenge that defeat by Donegal last year, while the Northerners are not coming all the way down to the Capital to lose. It should be an interesting contest.
